

We're HIRING!

PART-TIME IRISH DANCE INSTRUCTOR

Join a legacy. Inspire a future. Make an impact.

Harling School of Irish Dance is seeking a part-time instructor to support and grow within a program rooted in a deep legacy of Irish dance excellence. This role is ideal for someone who wants to stay connected to Irish dance while contributing to a collaborative, high-standard environment where every dancer is supported and challenged.

GENERAL EXPECTATIONS

- Show up prepared, professional, and on time
- Take initiative within the classroom without needing direction
- Support students at all levels with patience and encouragement
- Follow the structure and standards of the school while contributing positively to the team culture
- Communicate clearly and reliably regarding scheduling and availability

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Assist in teaching Irish dance classes across multiple levels
- Lead portions of class and progress to independently running classes after a training period
- Teach and reinforce school steps and technique
- Identify dancers who need extra support and provide hands-on guidance
- Help maintain a structured, positive, and engaging class environment
- Support general parent communication as needed within class context

COMPENSATION

- $18-$22/hour based on experience (non-TCRG)
- Higher compensation available for TCRG-certified instructors, based on experience

SCHEDULE

- 1-2 nights per week (approximately 4-8 hours total)
- Primarily weekday evenings (approx. 4:00 PM - 9:00 PM)
- Flexibility for weekend availability if needed

Help keep the tradition alive. We can't wait to meet you!
